79-70 C

69-0 F must be repeated

A student's final grade will be made available through Campus Connect at Clarendon College's website.

Classroom Policies:

Each student must clock in and out when entering or leaving the department. Failure to do so will cause loss of hours. A student must not clock a fellow student in or out. These rules are mandated by the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulations. Chewing gum will not be allowed in the Student Salon.

Dress Code:

Students may wear

1. Black scrubs
2. Black lab jackets.
3. Colored or white T-shirts
4. Athletic type shoes (with comfortable sole you will be standing)

Students must have hair and make-up completed before clocking in.

Students must not wear caps, hats, bandanas or scarves (we want to project a professional image).

Failure to comply with lawful direction of a classroom instructor is a disruption for all students enrolled in the class. Cheating violations include, but are not limited to: (1) obtaining an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise by stealing or collusion; (2) discovering the content of an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment before it is given; (3) using an unauthorized source of information during an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment; (4) entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage; (5) taking an examination for another person; (6) completing a classroom activity, laboratory exercise, homework assignment, or research paper for another person; (7) altering grade records; (8) using any unauthorized form of electronic communication device during an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise; (9) Plagiarism.

Plagiarism is the using, stating, offering, or reporting as one's own, an idea, expression, or production of another person without proper credit.

Absentee Policy

Students must maintain an 85% attendance or be on probation until student complies. If this is not accomplishing the student's grade will be lowered by one letter.

Any absences in the Fall, Spring and Summer semester exceeding three days (24 hours) is considered excessive and will place a student on departmental probation for the remainder of the semester. Students will receive a written warning. Students are responsible for making up any missed work.

CELL PHONES:

Cell phones are prohibited in the student salon and the classroom. Students may use them phones in break room, and when outside on break.

Disciplinary actions for cheating in a course are at the discretion of the individual instructor. The instructor of that course will file a report with the Vice President of Students when a student is caught cheating in the course, whether it be a workforce or academic course. The report shall include the course, instructor, student's name, and the type of cheating involved.

Students who are reported as cheating to the Vice President of Students more than once shall be disciplined by the Vice President. The Vice President will notify all involved parties within fourteen days of any action taken.

Americans with Disabilities Act Statement:

Clarendon College provides reasonable accommodations for persons with temporary or permanent disabilities. Should you require special accommodations, notify the Office of Student Services (806-874-3571 or 800-687- 9737). We will work with you to make whatever accommodations we need to make.

Dropping a Course:

A student who is enrolled in a developmental course for TSI purposes may not drop his/her only developmental course unless the student completely withdraws from the college. A student may drop any other course with a grade of "W" any time after the census date for the semester and on or before the end of the 12th week of a long semester, or on or before the last day to drop a class of a term as designated in the college calendar. The request for permission to drop a course is initiated by the student by procuring a drop form from the Office of Student Services. (Refer to other policies concerning this issue in the current college catalog online.)

Withdrawal from College:

When a student finds it necessary to withdraw from school before the end of the semester, he or she should obtain a withdrawal form from the Office of Student Services. Students may also withdraw from the college by sending a written request for such action to the Registrar's Office. The request must include the student's signature, the student's current address, social security number and course information details. Students who withdraw after the census date for the semester and on or before the end of the 12th week of a long semester, or on or before the last day to drop a class of a term as designated in the college calendar will be assigned a grade of "W."

Test Missed

Students will be responsible for making up test during following the week of the test.
